CALL TO WORSHIP

L: Lord, we gather here in this place of refuge,

P: for we are lost, we are lonely, we are afraid.

L: Lord, we gather daring to wonder if God has indeed come in Jesus,

P: discerning the rejection we have known, intimate with our failed relationships, holding our heartache in hands of tenderness.

L: Lord, we gather with neighbors and strangers, a family made one by our brokenness,

P: coming with our hearts full of hope, and our pockets filled with doubts.

L: Lord, we gather just as we are,

P: for God has promised to meet us here and to welcome us for who we are.

OPENING PRAYER

Lord, we know that some bear crosses hollowed out by hunger, some carry crosses called injustice. Sometimes our abundance is a cross which we struggle to bear because we refuse to view others as they are or by what they need. We are either judgmental, or we ignore them completely, saying they are not our problem. But as we learn to follow you, as we seek to be as generous as you, we discover that we can gift others with hope, with grace, and with peace. Lead us Lord so that we may see all as your children and our brothers and sisters. This we pray in the name of Jesus. Amen.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Confession is a spiritual discipline that leads us into a deeper relationship with the Holy. As we approach God in community in Confession, we open our hearts to the hearing of God's word.

L: My Friends, which of us has not hurt someone this week? Which of us has not spoken (or thought) ill of a sister or brother in Christ? Which of us has failed to do good when given the chance? Which of us? All of us and each of us! But Christ came to save people just like us, so I invite you to join me as we offer our prayers to God, saying,
P: Although we believe we are experts at faithfulness, Holy God, we must confess we are unskilled workers at doing good for others. Too often, we turn a deaf ear to the cries of people we have judged to be fools. We easily scoff at those we believe have nothing to teach us or share with us.

How foolish, Searching God, how foolish we are! Forgive us, and restore us to your goodness. Then, send us forth to search for all who sit in the shadowed corners of our world, yearning for someone to come and find them, even as Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, came to find us.

Assurance of Pardon

L: Our actions sometimes show we do not know God. Our words and lives show we do not understand God's hopes for us. But with utmost patience, God sets aside our foolishness, and fills us with mercy.

P: Mingled with faith and love, grace is poured into our sin-parched souls, giving us new life, restoring us as God's children. Thanks be to God. Amen.

OFFERINGS OF WORSHIP

With confession and the acceptance of forgiveness we are better attuned to hear God's word.

A READING FROM THE GOSPEL OF Luke 15:1-10
