CALL TO WORSHIP

L: We hear the echo of a promise: “I’m coming!”

P: Are you really the One?

L: “The blind receive their sight and the lame walk.”

P: Are you really the One?

L: “The lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear.”

P: Are you really the One?

L: “The dead are raised and the poor eat their fill.”

P: But are you really the One?

L: “I’m the One who changes the world. Are you really ready for me?”

P: With God’s help, we’re ready to follow you. We’re ready for you!

CALL TO RECONCILIATION

L: We do not need to wait. God is ready and willing to hear our voices, and listen to our hearts, as we confess how we have not lived as we could, we have not treated others as we should. Join me, as we pray together, saying,

We admit, Holy God, that we are in a hurry: to get our lists made, to have everything done on time, to find Christmas - now! We look around for your day, but every day seems the same. The blind may see, the lame may be dancing, the sick may be healed - but we still find ourselves imprisoned in our fears, our work, our lives.

As you forgive us, Patient God, remind us that you are not finished with us. You continue to come to us, your arms laden with the gifts of peace, joy, grace, hope and so many more, shared with us through the ongoing witness of Jesus Christ, our Savior, our Brother.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

L: Blessed are those not offended when God does the unexpected – coming as one of us!

P: We look and we find the One who has come, bringing forgiveness and grace. Amen.
