The Making of a Prophet: Celebrating Martin Luther King, Jr

THOUGHTS FOR REFLECTION

Those born after 1968 did not hear the speeches of Martin Luther King Jr., on the evening news; and many of us born before 1968 only recall them in brief "sound bites" that are used in our yearly MLK celebrations. This service compares the experiences of Moses to those of Martin Luther King, Jr., and provides an opportunity for those present to reflect upon the ways that God prepares people to stand as prophets.
