Bold Print All Say In Unison

Tony Campolo once wrote: “Most Christians I know have just enough of the Gospel to make them miserable, but not enough to make them joyful.” As much as we believe in our head that Christ transforms us into a new creation, something seems lacking in our heart. We hear sermons on Sunday exhorting us to live an abundant Christian life, but come Monday morning, we find ourselves living a “semi-charmed kind of life.” We think of a happy, joy-filled life as something as attainable only in eternity. Charles Spurgeon wrote: When joy comes into a man, it shines out of his eyes, it sparkles in his countenance. There is something about every limb of the man that betokens that his body, like a well-tuned harp, has had its strings put in order. Joy!

GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

We begin with announcements of the ministry and mission of the church. Please sign and pass the black Welcome Pad located at the ends of the pews along the centermost aisle.

OFFERINGS OF PRAISE

We come to God’s presence joyfully and humbly, preparing ourselves to receive God’s word.

CALL TO WORSHIP

God, let this be a fruitful day!

Open our eyes to beauty.

Tune our ears to harmony.

Let fragrance of your love permeate every moment.

Let the touch of your hand guide all we do.

Let us delight in your presence – let us feel the joy of your love.

OPENING PRAYER - Shout joyfully to the Lord, all the earth.

Serve the Lord with gladness; come before Him with joyful singing. Know that the Lord Himself is God; it is He who has made us, and not we ourselves; we are His people and the sheep of His pasture. Enter His gates with thanksgiving, and His courts with praise. Give thanks to Him; bless His name. For the Lord is good; His lovingkindness is everlasting, and His faithfulness to all generations. AMEN
