OPENING PRAYER

God of power and might, your saints have ever lived in the glory of your love. Fill us with your grace and peace that we may know the richness of eternal life in your Spirit. Help us love you with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our strength, and with all our mind; even as we love our neighbor as we love ourselves. For only in loving Holy One, do we lead lives worthy of your calling, through Jesus Christ, our Lord AMEN

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE/LORD'S PRAYER

Lord, we are so grateful for all you have done for us. Each day you remind us of your love and mercy. Sometimes we feel lost and alone. Remind us again of your loving presence. Heal our lives and comfort us when we become lost, lonely or afraid. Prepare us to serve you faithfully. Be with us now in this time and place. For in Jesus name we pray the prayer He taught His disciples saying... "Our Father

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Your judgment, Holy One, reveals us for who we truly are. We do not always like what we see. Forgive us, when we show partiality to the powerful, when we deny justice to the weak and destitute, when we ignore the cry of the widow and orphan, when we turn a blind eye to the wicked. We know what it means to be a good neighbor, but we can't seem to bring ourselves to be one. Work within us, O God, as you worked in the saints of old, that our works may bear good fruit and our lives may shine the light of your justice. AMEN

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

In Christ, we have been made strong, through the strength of God's glorious power. For God has rescued us from the power of darkness to shine forth with the light of Christ. Rejoice, for in Christ, we are forgiven.
