Wisdom from Fellow Pilgrims:

I will put my spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you on your own soil; then you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken and will act,” says the LORD. (Ezekiel 37:14)

CALL TO WORSHIP

L: Coming from places that have seen better days,

P: God bids us to celebrate this day, a day full of new possibilities.

L: Coming with our breath taken away by grief,

P: the Holy Spirit breathes new life within us, renewing our connection with God and with one another.

L: Coming to worship seeking a hope that will endure,

P: Christ unbinds the fetters that hold us in death, speaking in word and sacrament, and building community for holy service.

PRAYER – Please pray with me...

God of life, present and promised, you are the One to whom we call: for you are the One who hears, and you are the One who acts, bringing us new life with your grace and love and power.

Lead us in our time of worship, that we may be prepared to follow your lead in places where life is at risk—places where hope seems far away, places where dreams die during sleep.

When we leave these walls, help us live the teachings we proclaim within this place of worship, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

/THE LORD’S PRAYER

READING FROM BOOK OF EZEKIEL 17:12-18

PRAYER FOR FORGIVENESS

P: Forgive us, O God, when we see the world through rose-colored glasses rather than as it really is, much less the way you seek it to be. Forgive us, Holy One, when we forsake lively and risky faith calling us to be agents of change in our world and trade it for the bland conviction that all will be well. Renew us with your grace and ground us with your Spirit, that we might be empowered to live, in word and deed, as testimonies to the power of your love over the grave. In Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

L: The God we serve is the God of life, the God of hope, the God of new beginnings—even for dried-up bones and shattered dreams. That rattling of bones in Ezekiel’s vision may be heard as the shackles that once held us down in fear, sin, prejudice, and guilt. God defies these deadly entanglements with the power of life. This we trust, and by this we live.

P: Thanks be to God!

Our Mission:

"To Make Christ Known!"

Our church is to be a place where love is present, hurts are healed, joys and concerns are shared and supported by prayer.

Our Church serves our community and the world, by realizing and sharing the satisfying and abundant life Christ brings to ALL people - regardless of race, gender, ethnicity, national origin, culture, tradition, family configuration, economic status, sexual orientation or gender identity.
