Bold Print All Say In Unison

Wisdom from Fellow Pilgrims: Prayer is a kind of calling home every day. There is a feeling of serenity and security, of love and grace. Sometimes we call to say Hi!; sometimes we call to ask for something; sometimes we call to say Thanks!; and sometimes we just want to hear a friendly, loving voice. It works like this with God too; so think about prayer as a call home ----to God.

CALL TO WORSHIP

L: We pressed our way into this moment

P: Carrying the concerns of the week -
Looking . . . searching . . . hoping

L: We come, to touch and be touched

P: Like the blur of people who rushed toward Jesus from ancient villages, and cities, and farms

L: We have come to worship;

P: For the same Jesus who cared for them . . . cares for us.

OPENING PRAYER

L: Please pray with me:

P: Although we allow our busy lives, our grief and anger, our take-you-for-granted- attitude to turn us away from grace and mercy, your love and care refuses to let go; We praise and thank you, O God, for your relentless love, for its abundant availability, and for reminding us to be persistent in our prayers to you. It is because you flood our lives with love and care that we continue on - even when things don't go as planned. And it is because you flood our lives, that some must, inevitably overflow and warm others with its touch. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE/ THE LORD'S PRAYER

CONFESSION AND PARDON

P: Dear Heavenly Father, we lower our heads before you and we confess that we have too often forgotten that we are yours. Sometimes we carry on our lives as if there was no God and we fall short of being a credible witness to You. For these things, we ask your forgiveness and we also ask for your strength. Give us clear minds and open hearts so we may witness to You in our world. Remind us to be who You would have us to be regardless of what we are doing or who we are with. Hold us to You and build our relationship with You and with those You have given us on earth. L: Christ died for our sins. He made a full atonement for us. We are forgiven and we have the promise of eternal life. Feel that forgiveness in your heart. We are God's children. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving/Dedication :

Holy God, we long to be a part of your Kingdom. We rejoice in the salvation you have offered through Christ. We long for the time when your reign shall bring wholeness to all your children. May the gifts we give and the lives we live bring us closer to that day when love and faithfulness shall meet, and righteousness and peace will kiss each other. May we give freely, so our hands are empty to receive this blessing of blessings from you. We pray in the confidence we feel in Christ. Amen. (Psalm 85)
