INTRODUCTION TO WORSHIP – Jesus was full of the Spirit after staying in the desert for 40 days, praying, fasting and being tempted by the devil. He returned to his hometown and wanted to start his ministry, teaching and sharing with the people admitting that he was the long-awaited Messiah. People were amazed at his preaching. Yet, the people who knew him best, were angered that Jesus claimed to be the Messiah as they knew he was just the son of Joseph the carpenter. In their anger they tried to kill Jesus – a foreshadowing of coming events. Jesus left Nazareth – alone and rejected - and went to a town called Capernaum.

INTRO TO THE PRAYER/HYMN WRITTEN BY ST. FRANCIS

In Jesus’ early ministry he relieved suffering of all kinds – mental, emotional, physical and spiritual – often putting himself in danger. For Jesus, this was showing the people to whom he preached and taught, the reality of the Kingdom of God. Jesus calls each and every person – then and now – to live out the same kind of compassion for one another. Adam Hamilton writes that “each of us must be the stretcher-bearer for others. For in so doing, we will love as Jesus first loved us.”

The following selection is listed as a prayer in the United Methodist Hymnal (#481) and as a Hymn in The Faith We Sing Hymnal (#2171). Hymns often started as prayers that someone put to music. Know that any hymn can be prayed, and any prayer can be sung.

UNISON PRAYER

Lord God, we seem so surrounded by demons. Some are demons over which we have no control. Others we have brought upon ourselves by choices we have made. But we know, Lord that all demons of every sort are subject to your power and love. Forgive us Lord, for dwelling upon the demons rather than upon you, the answer to the demons that seem to torment us. Forgive us Lord, for trying every other means of overcoming our demons before we learn to trust you and rely upon prayer. Forgive us Lord, for daring to think that some demons may be beyond your control. We offer this prayer in the name of the one who casts out demons and who will rid us of our demons if we only rely upon him, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
